

community school is intended was to support those inside and outside of our walls to support those in need.

3. A significant portion of the testimonials given for other names, both in writing and in person before the committee, mentioned that the suggestions were made if and only if it was the case that "Reagan ECHS" was not an option.
4. The leaders of the booster clubs for the band and the football team said they were